Re: Spectrum Dynamics Medical Limited v. GE et al.; No.: 18-cv-11386 (VSB)

Dear Magistrate Judge Parker:

We write on behalf of Plaintiff Spectrum Dynamics Medical Limited (“Spectrum”) and Defendants General Electric et al. in connection with the parties’ Joint Agenda Letter that is due tomorrow, August 12, 2021, in accordance with [D.I. 290].

The parties request Your Honor extend the due date for the Joint Agenda Letter until Tuesday, August 17, 2021, in order to permit the parties to address issues that might impact scheduling, and particularly, scheduling of depositions. Judge Broderick granted Spectrum’s requests to file a motion for preliminary injunction and to exceed page limits and also directed the parties to (i) meet and confer to discuss a briefing and discovery schedule as well as any impact to the current Scheduling Order and (ii) respond to the Court by Friday, August 13, 2021, regarding the same. ([D.I. 318].) In addition, the parties’ due date to exchange objections to the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition topics is also Friday, August 13, 2021, and the parties are scheduling a meet and confer to discuss the same on Monday, August 16, 2021. Given that Judge Broderick’s order could result in changes to the current litigation schedule and the parties desire to resolve any disputes regarding Rule 30(b)(6) topics before depositions commence, the parties request Your Honor extend the due date for the Joint Agenda Letter until Tuesday, August 17, 2021.

Hon. Katharine H. Parker
